4. Research and development:

Efficiency Innovation in the component manufacturing industry will continue to adopt the existing processes of metal stamping and CNC, powder metallurgy, and plastic injection. In addition to continuing to improve automation processes to increase manufacturing efficiency, we will continue to expand our product scales and increase types of items in the automotive parts market and increase the penetration rate of our products for new energy-powered vehicles, and as global environmental awareness rises, the Company will engage more in carbon emission management issues.

5. The 2023 business outlook:

The impact of COVID-19 pandemic began to gradually ease in 2022, and the livelihood industry began to recover. However, the manufacturing supply chain continues to be affected by the ongoing epidemic control in China and the outbreak of the Russia-Ukraine War, the overall manufacturing industry continues to be impacted. Looking ahead to this year, the first half of this year, was affected by inflation and weakened consumer spending, resulting in the recession in various industries, which also limited the Company's growth; however, after the aforementioned issue is mitigated in the second half of the year, we will have the opportunity to have our business grow in response to the changes in the macro environment. The automotive parts and components are still the core of the Company's manufacturing business development. Therefore, the two major development key words: Japan and automotive have not changed. We will continue to increase our profits with this approach and strive to maximize all shareholders' equity. We hope that you will continue to support and offer your advice to us.

I wish you good health and all the best!

Independent Auditors' Report

(112)-Cai-Sheng-Bao No. 22005424

To ABICO AVY Co., Ltd.,

Audit opinion

We have audited the accompanying parent company only balance sheets of ABICO AVY Co., Ltd. (formerly known as AVY PRECISION TECHNOLOGY INC.) (the "Company") for the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2021 and the relevant parent company only statements of comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows for the years then ended, and relevant notes, including a summary of significant accounting policies (collectively referred to as the "parent company only financial statements").

In our opinion, the accompanying parent company only financial statements, based on our audit results and the audit report issued by other CPAs (please refer to the "Other matters" paragraph), present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2022 and 2021 and for the years then ended, and its parent company only financial performance and parent company only cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers.

Basis for audit opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with the Regulations Governing the Auditing and Attestation of Financial Statements by Certified Public Accountants and auditing standards in the Republic of China. Our responsibility under those standards is further described in the paragraph "Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the parent company only financial statements". We are independent of ABICO AVY Co., Ltd. in accordance with the Norm of Professional Ethics for Certified Public Accountant of the Republic of China, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. Based on our audit results and other accountants' audit reports, we are convinced that we have acquired enough and appropriate audit evidence to serve as the basis of audit opinion.

Key audit matters

Key audit matters refer to the most vital matters in our audit of the parent company only financial statements of ABICO AVY Co., Ltd. for the year ended December 31, 2022, based on our professional judgment. These matters were addressed in our audit of the parent company only financial statements as a whole, and in forming our audit opinion. We do not express a separate opinion on these matters.

Key audit matters of the parent company only financial statements of the Company for the year ended December 31, 2022, are stated as follows:

Please refer to Note 4(12) to the parent company only financial statements for the accounting policy on the Company's investments using the equity method; please refer to Note 6(6) to the parent company only financial statements for the description of accounting titles. The subsidiaries directly or indirectly owned by the Company, namely Dong Guan Cheng Guang Metal Products Co., Ltd., Dong Guan Cheng Guang Precision Industry Co., Ltd., IKKA Holdings (Cayman) Ltd., Jabon International Co., Ltd., and ABICO NetCom Co., Ltd., are the main operating entities responsible for the manufacturing and sales in the Group. Said companies' financial position and financial performance bear a significant influence on the Company's parent company only financial statements. Therefore, we listed the valuation of said companies' investments using the equity method as one of the key audit matters and said companies' key audit matters: assessment of an allowance for inventory valuation loss and assessment of an allowance for losses on accounts receivable as one of the key audit matters. The key audit matters are specified below:

Assessment of expected credit loss on accounts receivable

Description

Dong Guan Cheng Guang Metal Products Co., Ltd.'s, Dong Guan Cheng Guang Precision Industry Co., Ltd.'s, IKKA Holdings (Cayman) Ltd.'s, Jabon International Co., Ltd.'s, and ABICO NetCom Co., Ltd.'s main clients are from Taiwan, mainland China, Hong Kong, Japan, Vietnam, and Malaysia. If the clients have significant financial difficulties or delay in payment or non-payment of principal, the risk of not being able to recover notes and accounts would increase. The companies assess if there is objective evidence of expected credit impairment of individual notes and accounts receivable on each balance sheet date. It assesses if such notes and accounts receivable are overdue or in default, their historical transaction records, the collection situation after the balance sheet date, clients' financial position, and forward-looking factors, to estimate the amount of an allowance for losses that should be set aside.

As the companies have a large amount of notes and accounts receivable and a large number of clients, and the assessment process of an allowance for losses on notes and accounts receivable often involves the management team's subjective judgment, it is also an area that needs to be judged in the audit work, so we included the assessment of the allowance for loss on receivables as a key audit matter in this year's audit work.

Corresponding audit procedures

This matter covers different entities audited by us and other accountants. To assess the adequacy of an allowance for bad debts from overdue and individually risky notes and account receivable, the corresponding procedures undertaken by us and other accountants are specified below:

1. As per the accounting principles, plus the understanding of the nature of the Group's operations and industry, we assessed the reasonableness of the Group's classification and aging analysis of its clients' credit quality.
2. We obtained the overdue or default status of notes and accounts receivable and assessed the reasonableness of expected credit losses estimated with a provision matrix.
3. We obtained the collection records of individually significant notes and accounts receivable after the balance sheet date to assess if there were expected credit losses on notes and accounts receivable and confirm the appropriateness of the amount of an allowance for losses set aside.
4. For accounts receivable that are overdue or may not be collected, we assessed the possibility of recovery based on the past collection experience, discussions with the management team, and relevant corroborating materials obtained.

Assessment of an allowance for inventory valuation losses

Description

Dong Guan Cheng Guang Metal Products Co., Ltd., Dong Guan Cheng Guang Precision Industry Co., Ltd., KKA Holdings (Cayman) Ltd., Jabon International Co., Ltd., and ABICO NetCom Co., Ltd. mainly manufacture and sell metal casings for mobile phones and digital cameras, actuator components, powder metallurgy, and business equipment components. As these inventories are vulnerable to rapid changes in technology, short product life cycles, and fierce market competition, there is a higher risk of inventory valuation losses, obsolescence, or damage. The net realizable value of the companies' inventories normally sold is based on the sales and purchase prices in the normal course of business within a certain period before the balance sheet date, and the net realizable values of inventories that are not sold after a certain period of age and individually identified obsolete or damaged inventories are calculated based on historical information on the extent to which the inventories are sold and discounted.

Due to the large number of items in the companies' inventories and the multiple sources of information on the net realizable values of individual materials in the inventories, the identification of the net realizable values of the individually obsolete or damaged inventories and the assessment often involves the management team's subjective judgments, so it is also an area that needs to be judged. Therefore, we listed the assessment of an allowance for inventory valuation losses as one of the key audit matters in this year's audit work.

Corresponding audit procedures

This matter covers different entities audited by us and other accountants. To assess the adequacy of the net realizable values of inventory measured and an allowance for inventory valuation losses, the corresponding procedures undertaken by us and other accountants are specified below:

1. As per the understanding of the nature of the companies' operations and industry, we assessed if the policy on the provision of an allowance for inventory valuation losses during the comparative financial reporting periods was appropriate and consistent.
2. We learned about the process of inventory management, reviewed its annual inventory plan, and participated in its annual inventory process to evaluate the effectiveness of the management team's distinguishing and controlling of obsolete or damaged inventory.
3. We obtained the inventory age report of each inventory item and tested the correctness of the calculation logic to confirm that the obsolete inventory items over a certain age have been included in the report.
4. We obtained a net realizable value report of each inventory item, confirmed that the calculation logic was consistent, and randomly checked the selling and purchase prices of individual materials in the inventory based on the relevant supporting documents.

Other matters: Reference to other accountants' audits

As stated in Note 6(6) to the parent company only financial statements, the financial statements of some of the investees included in the Company's parent company only financial statements, including Jabon International Co., Ltd., ABICO NetCom Co., Ltd., and some investee using the equity method have not been audited by us but by other accountants. Therefore, in the opinion we rendered on the above parent company only financial statements, the amounts listed in said companies' financial statements are based on the audit reports issued by other accountants. The balances of the investments in the above companies using the equity method as of December 31, 2022 and 2021 were NT$1,064,656 thousand and NT$1,128,300 thousand, respectively, accounting for 15% and 17% of the total parent company only assets; the shares of profit or loss on the above investees accounted for using the equity method for the years ended December 31, 2021 and 2020 were NT$9,049 thousand in loss and NT$64,023 thousand in profit, respectively, accounting for 10% and 106% of the parent company only profit (loss) before tax, respectively.

Responsibilities of the management and the governing bodies for the parent company only financial statements

The responsibilities of the management are to prepare the parent company only financial statements with fair presentation in accordance with the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers and to maintain necessary internal control associated with the preparation in order to ensure that the financial statements are free from material misstatement arising from fraud or error.

In preparing the parent company only financial statements, the management is responsible for assessing the ability of ABICO AVY Co., Ltd. in continuing as a going concern, disclosing relevant matters, and adopting the going concern basis of accounting unless the management intends to liquidate ABICO AVY Co., Ltd. or cease the operations without other viable alternatives.

The Company's governing bodies (including its Audit Committee) are responsible for supervising the financial reporting process.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the parent company only financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance on whether the parent company only financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement arising from fraud or error and to issue an independent auditors' report. Reasonable assurance is a high-level assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the auditing standards in the Republic of China will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatement may arise from frauds or errors. If the amounts of misstatements, either separately or in aggregate, could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of the users of the parent company only financial statements, they are considered material.

We have utilized our professional judgment and professional doubt when performing the audit work in accordance with the auditing standards in the Republic of China. We also performed the following tasks:

1. Identified and assessed the risks of material misstatement arising from fraud or error within the parent company only financial statements; designed and executed countermeasures in response to said risks, and obtained sufficient and appropriate audit evidence to provide a basis for our opinion. Fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Therefore, the risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than the one resulting from error.

2. Understood the internal control related to the audit in order to design appropriate audit procedures under the circumstances, while not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of ABICO AVY Co., Ltd.'s internal control.
3. Evaluated the appropriateness of accounting policies adopted and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and relevant disclosures made by the management.
4. Concluded on the appropriateness of the management's adoption of the going concern basis of accounting based on the audit evidence obtained and whether a material uncertainty exists for events or conditions that may cast significant doubt over ABICO AVY Co., Ltd.'s ability to continue as a going concern. If we are of the opinion that a material uncertainty exists, we shall remind users of the parent company only financial statements to pay attention to relevant disclosures in said statements within our audit report. If such disclosures are inadequate, we need to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause ABICO AVY Co., Ltd. to cease to continue as a going concern.
5. Evaluated the overall presentation, structure, and content of the parent company only financial statements (including relevant notes), and whether the parent company only financial statements adequately present the relevant transactions and events.
6. Obtained sufficient and appropriate audit evidence concerning the financial information of entities within ABICO AVY Co., Ltd., to express an opinion on the parent company only financial statements. We were responsible for guiding, supervising, and performing the audit and forming an audit opinion about the entities.

The matters communicated between us and the governing bodies included the planned scope and times of the audit and material audit findings (including any material defects in internal control identified during the audit).

We also provided the governing bodies with a declaration that we have complied with the Norm of Professional Ethics for Certified Public Accountant of the Republic of China regarding independence and communicated with them all relations and other matters that may possibly be regarded as detrimental to our independence (including relevant protective measures).

From the matters communicated with the governing bodies, we determined the key audit matters for the audit of ABICO AVY Co., Ltd.'s parent company only financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2022. We have clearly indicated such matters in the auditors' report. Unless legal regulations prohibit the public disclosure of specific matters, or in extremely rare cases, where we decided not to communicate over specific items in the auditors' report for it could be reasonably anticipated that the negative effects of such disclosure would be greater than the public interest it brings forth.

Independent Auditors' Report

(112)-Cai-Sheng-Bao No. 22005491

To ABICO AVY Co., Ltd.,

Audit opinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of ABICO AVY Co., Ltd. (formerly known as AVY PRECISION TECHNOLOGY INC.) (the “Company”) and its subsidiaries (collectively, the “Group”) for the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2021 and the relevant consolidated statements of comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows for the years then ended, and relevant notes, including a summary of significant accounting policies (collectively referred to as the “consolidated financial statements”).

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements, based on our audit results and the audit report issued by other CPAs (please refer to the “Other matters” paragraph), present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2022 and 2021 and for the years then ended, and its consolidated financial performance and consolidated cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers, the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS), International Accounting Standards (IAS), IFRIC Interpretations (IFRIC), and SIC Interpretations (SIC) (collectively referred to as “IFRSs”) endorsed by the Financial Supervisory Commission (FSC) of the Republic of China.

Basis for audit opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with the Regulations Governing the Auditing and Attestation of Financial Statements by Certified Public Accountants and auditing standards of the Republic of China. Our responsibility under those standards is further described in the paragraph “Auditor’s responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements”. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the Norm of Professional Ethics for Certified Public Accountant of the Republic of China, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. Based on our audit results and other accountants’ audit reports, we are convinced that we have acquired enough and appropriate audit evidence to serve as the basis of audit opinion.

Key audit matters

Key audit matters refer to the most vital matters in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the Group for the year ended December 31, 2022, based on our professional judgment. These matters were addressed in our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our audit opinion. We do not express a separate opinion on these matters.

Key audit matters of the Group's consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2022, are stated as follows:

Assessment of expected credit loss on accounts receivable

Description

Please refer to Note 4(11) to the consolidated financial statements for the accounting policies on the assessment of impairment of notes and accounts receivable; please refer to Note 5(2) to the consolidated financial statements for the uncertainty about accounting estimates and assumptions about the estimated impairment of financial assets; please refer to Note 6(5) to the consolidated financial statements for the description of accounts of notes and accounts receivable. The balances of notes and accounts receivable and an allowance for losses on December 31, 2022 were NT$2,150,225 thousand and NT$74,374 thousand, respectively.

The Group's main clients are from Taiwan, mainland China, Hong Kong, Japan, Vietnam, and Malaysia. If the clients have significant financial difficulties or delay in payment or non-payment of principal, the risk of not being able to recover notes and accounts would increase. The Group assesses if there is objective evidence of expected credit impairment of individual notes and accounts receivable on each balance sheet date. It assesses if such notes and accounts receivable are overdue or in default, their historical transaction records, the collection situation after the balance sheet date, clients' financial position, and forward-looking factors, to estimate the amount of an allowance for losses that should be set aside.

As the Group has a large amount of notes and accounts receivable and a large number of clients, and the assessment process of an allowance for losses on notes and accounts receivable often involves the management team's subjective judgment, it is also an area that needs to be judged in the audit work, so we included the assessment of the allowance for loss on receivables as a key audit matter in this year's audit work.

Corresponding audit procedures

This matter covers different consolidated entities audited by us and other accountants. To assess the adequacy of an allowance for losses on overdue and individually risky notes and account receivable, the corresponding procedures undertaken by us and other accountants are specified below:

1. As per the accounting principles, plus the understanding of the nature of the Group's operations and industry, we assessed the reasonableness of the Group's classification and aging analysis of its clients' credit quality.
2. We obtained the overdue or default status of notes and accounts receivable and assessed the reasonableness of expected credit losses estimated with a provision matrix.
3. We obtained the collection records of individually significant notes and accounts receivable after the balance sheet date to assess if there were expected credit losses on notes and accounts receivable and confirm the appropriateness of the amount of an allowance for losses set aside.
4. For accounts receivable that are overdue or may not be collected, we assessed the possibility of recovery based on the past collection experience, discussions with the management team, and relevant corroborating materials obtained.

Assessment of an allowance for inventory valuation losses

Description

Please refer to Note 4(14) to the consolidated financial statements for the accounting policy on inventory valuation; please refer to Note 5(2) to the consolidated financial statements for the uncertainty about accounting estimates and assumptions about inventory valuation; please refer to Note 6(7) to the consolidated financial statements for the description of the account of inventory. The balances of inventory and an allowance for inventory valuation losses on December 31, 2022 were NT$1,776,332 thousand and NT$231,757 thousand, respectively.

The Group mainly manufactures and sells metal casings for mobile phones and digital cameras, actuator components, powder metallurgy, and business equipment components. As these inventories are vulnerable to rapid changes in technology, short product life cycles, and fierce market competition, there is a higher risk of inventory valuation losses, obsolescence, or damage. The net realizable value of the Group's inventory normally sold is based on the sales and purchase prices in the normal course of business within a certain period before the balance sheet date. The net realizable values of inventory not sold after a certain period of age and individually identified obsolete or damaged inventory are calculated based on historical information on the extent to which the inventories are sold and discounted.

Due to the large number of items in the Group's inventory and the multiple sources of information on the net realizable values of individual materials in the inventory, the identification of the net realizable values of the individually obsolete or damaged inventory and the assessment often involves the management team's subjective judgments, so it is also an area that needs to be judged. Therefore, we listed the assessment of an allowance for inventory valuation losses as one of the key audit matters in this year's audit work.

Corresponding audit procedures

This matter covers different consolidated entities audited by us and other accountants. To assess the adequacy of the net realizable values of inventory measured and an allowance for inventory valuation losses, the corresponding procedures undertaken by us and other accountants are specified below:

1. As per the understanding of the nature of the Group's operations and industry, we assessed if the policy on the provision of an allowance for inventory valuation losses during the comparative financial reporting periods was appropriate and consistent.
2. We learned about the process of inventory management, reviewed its annual inventory plan, and participated in its annual inventory process to evaluate the effectiveness of the management team's distinguishing and controlling of obsolete or damaged inventory.
3. We obtained the inventory age report of each inventory item and tested the correctness of the calculation logic to confirm that the obsolete inventory items over a certain age have been included in the report.
4. We obtained a net realizable value report of each inventory item, confirmed that the calculation logic was consistent, and randomly checked the selling and purchase prices of individual materials in the inventory based on the relevant supporting documents.

Other matters: Reference to other accountants' audits

The financial statements of some of the subsidiaries included in the Group's consolidated financial statements, including Jabon International Co., Ltd., ABICO NetCom Co., Ltd., and some investee using the equity method have not been audited by us but by other accountants. Therefore, in the opinion we rendered on the above consolidated financial statements, the amounts listed in said companies' financial statements are based on the audit reports issued by other accountants. The total assets (including investments using the equity method) of said companies as of December 31, 2022 and 2021 were NT$4,451,006 thousand and NT$5,031,610 thousand, respectively, accounting for 29% and 32% of the total consolidated assets; their operating revenue for the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2021 amounted to NT$4,621,235 thousand and NT$5,172,177 thousand, respectively, accounting for 44% and 44% of the consolidated operating revenue; the comprehensive losses on said investees accounted for using the equity method for the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2021 were NT$11,975 thousand and NT$10,102 thousand, accounting for 5% and 11% of the consolidated comprehensive income (loss), respectively.

Other matters: Parent company only financial statements

ABICO AVY Co., Ltd. has also prepared the parent company only financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2021, for which we have issued an unqualified opinion (including the Other matters paragraphs) for 2022 and an unqualified opinion (including the Other matters and Emphasis matters paragraphs) for 2021 as a reference.

Responsibilities of the management and the governing bodies for the consolidated financial statements

The responsibilities of the management are to prepare the consolidated financial statements with fair presentation in accordance with the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers and regulations of IFRSs endorsed and promulgated by the FSC and to maintain necessary internal control associated with the preparation in order to ensure that the financial statements are free from material misstatement arising from fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the management is responsible for assessing the Group's ability in continuing as a going concern, disclosing relevant matters, and adopting the going concern basis of accounting unless the management intends to liquidate the Group or cease the operations without other viable alternatives.

The Group's governing bodies (including its Audit Committee) are responsible for supervising the financial reporting process.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance on whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement arising from fraud or error and to issue an independent auditors' report. Reasonable assurance is a high-level assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the auditing standards of the Republic of China will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatement may arise from errors or frauds. If the amounts of misstatements, either separately or in aggregate, could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of the users of the consolidated financial statements, they are considered material.

We have utilized our professional judgment and professional doubt when performing the audit work in accordance with the auditing standards of the Republic of China. We also performed the following tasks:

1. Identified and assessed the risks of material misstatement arising from fraud or error within the consolidated financial statements; designed and executed countermeasures in response to said risks, and obtained sufficient and appropriate audit evidence to provide a basis for our opinion. Fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Therefore, the risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than the one resulting from error.
2. Understood the internal control related to the audit in order to design appropriate audit procedures under the circumstances, while not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
3. Evaluated the appropriateness of accounting policies adopted and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and relevant disclosures made by the management.
4. Concluded on the appropriateness of the management's adoption of the going concern basis of accounting based on the audit evidence obtained and whether a material uncertainty exists for events or conditions that may cast significant doubt over the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we are of the opinion that a material uncertainty exists, we shall remind users of the consolidated financial statements to pay attention to relevant disclosures in said statements within our audit report. If such disclosures are inadequate, we need to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
5. Evaluated the overall presentation, structure, and content of the consolidated financial statements (including relevant notes), and whether the consolidated financial statements adequately present the relevant transactions and events.
6. Obtained sufficient and appropriate audit evidence concerning the financial information of entities within the Group, to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We were responsible for guiding, supervising, and performing the audit and forming an audit opinion about the Group.

The matters communicated between us and the governing bodies included the planned scope and times of the audit and material audit findings (including any material defects in internal control identified during the audit).

We also provided the governing bodies with a declaration that we have complied with the Norm of Professional Ethics for Certified Public Accountant of the Republic of China regarding independence and communicated with them all relations and other matters that may possibly be regarded as detrimental to our independence (including relevant protective measures).

From the matters communicated with the governing bodies, we determined the key audit matters for the audit of the Group's consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2022. We have clearly indicated such matters in the auditors' report. Unless legal regulations prohibit the public disclosure of specific matters, or in extremely rare cases, where we decided not to communicate over specific items in the auditors' report for it could be reasonably anticipated that the negative effects of such disclosure would be greater than the public interest it brings forth.

Appendix I:

ABICO AVY CO., LTD. Rules of Procedure for Shareholders' Meetings

Article 1

To establish an excellent governance system for the Company's shareholders' meeting, improve the supervisory function, and strengthen the management function, these Rules are formulated in accordance with the provisions of Article 5 of the Corporate Governance Best Practice Principles for TWSE/TPEX Listed Companies.

Article 2

Unless otherwise stipulated by laws or regulations, the rules of procedure for the Company's shareholders' meeting shall be governed by these Rules.

Article 3

Unless otherwise provided by law or regulation, the Company's shareholders' meetings shall be convened by the Board of Directors.

Changes to the method of convening the shareholders' meeting shall be subject to a resolution by the Board of Directors and shall be made no later than before the notice of the shareholders' meeting is sent.

Thirty days before the Company convenes a general shareholders' meeting or 15 days before an extraordinary shareholders' meeting, the Company shall prepare electronic files of the meeting notice, proxy form, information on proposals for ratification, matters for discussion, election or dismissal of directors or supervisors, and other matters on the shareholders' meeting agenda and upload them to the Market Observation Post System (MOPS). Meanwhile, 21 days before the Company convenes a general shareholders' meeting or 15 days before an extraordinary shareholders' meeting, it shall prepare an electronic file of the shareholders' meeting agenda handbook and the supplementary materials and upload them to the MOPS. However, a publicly listed company, with the paid-in capital amounting to NT$10 billion or more at the end of the most recent fiscal year or the total shareholding ratio of foreign capital and capital from China reaching 30% or more as per the shareholder register for the general shareholders' meeting held in the most recent fiscal year, shall upload such an electronic file 30 days before the general shareholders' meeting. Fifteen days before the Company convenes a shareholders' meeting, it shall prepare the shareholders' meeting agenda handbook and supplementary materials and make them available for the shareholders to obtain and review at any time. In addition, the handbook shall be displayed at the Company and its professional shareholder service agency.

The Company shall provide said handbook and supplementary materials mentioned in the preceding paragraph to the shareholders on the day of the shareholders' meeting in the following methods:

- I. When a physical shareholders' meeting is convened, such materials shall be distributed on-site at the shareholders' meeting.

- II. When a physical shareholders' meeting is convened, supplemented by a video conference, such materials shall be distributed on-site at the shareholders' meeting, and an electronic file of such materials shall be uploaded to the video conference platform.
- III. When a shareholders' meeting is convened by video conference, an electronic file of such materials shall be sent to the video conference platform.

The reasons for convening a shareholders' meeting shall be specified in the meeting notice and the public announcement. With the consent of the addressee, the meeting notice may be given in electronic form.

Election or dismissal of directors or supervisors, amendments to the articles of incorporation, reduction of capital, application for the approval of ceasing its status as a public company, approval of the removal of the non-compete clause for the directors, capitalization of earnings, capitalization of legal reserve, dissolution, merger, or demerger of the Company, or any matter in each subparagraph under Article 185, paragraph 1 of the Company Act; Articles 26-1 and 43-6 of the Securities and Exchange Act, and Articles 56-1 and 60-2 of the Regulations Governing the Offering and Issuance of Securities by Securities Issuers, shall be set out and the essential contents explained in the notice of the shareholders' meeting. None of the above matters may be raised by an extempore motion.

Where an election of all directors and their inauguration date shall be stated in the notice of the shareholders' meeting, after the completion of the re-election in said meeting, such inauguration date may not be altered by any extempore motion or otherwise in the same meeting.

A shareholder holding one percent or more of the total number of outstanding shares may submit to the Company a proposal for discussion at an annual general meeting of shareholders. The number of items so proposed is limited only to one, and no proposal containing more than one item will be included in the meeting agenda. A shareholder's proposal in alignment with any circumstance under any subparagraph of Article 172-1, paragraph 4 of the Company Act may not be included in the meeting agenda by the Board of Directors. A shareholder may propose a recommendation for urging the Company to promote public interests or fulfill its social responsibilities, provided procedurally the number of items so proposed is limited only to one in accordance with Article 172-1 of the Company Act, and no proposal containing more than one item will be included in the meeting agenda.

Prior to the book closure date before a general shareholders' meeting is held, the Company shall publicly announce its acceptance of shareholders' proposals in writing or by electronic means and the location and time period for their submission; the period for acceptance of shareholders' proposals may not be fewer than 10 days.

Each of such proposals is limited to 300 words, and no proposal containing more than 300 words will be included in the meeting agenda. The shareholder making the proposal shall be present in person or by proxy at the annual general meeting of shareholders and take part in the discussion of the proposal.

Prior to the date for issuance of notice of a shareholders' meeting, the Company shall inform the shareholders who submitted proposals of the proposal screening results and shall list in the meeting notice the proposals that conform to the provisions of this article. At the shareholders meeting the Board of Directors shall explain the reasons for any shareholders' proposals not included in the agenda.

Article 4

For each shareholders' meeting, a shareholder may appoint a proxy to attend the meeting by providing the proxy form issued by the Company and stating the scope of the proxy's authorization.

Each shareholder may issue only one proxy form and appoint only one proxy for any given shareholders' meeting, and shall deliver the proxy form to the Company at least five days before the date of the shareholders' meeting. When a duplicate proxy form is served, the one received earliest shall prevail unless a declaration is made to cancel the previous proxy form.

Once a proxy form is received by the Company, if the shareholder wishes to attend the shareholders' meeting in person or to exercise their voting rights in writing or by electronic means, a written proxy rescission notice shall be filed with the Company two days prior to the date of the shareholders' meeting, otherwise, the voting power exercised by the authorized proxy at the meeting shall prevail.

Once the proxy form is received by the Company, in the case that the shareholder intends to attend the shareholders' meeting by video conference, a written proxy rescission notice shall be filed with the Company two days prior to the date of the shareholders' meeting, otherwise, the voting power exercised by the authorized proxy at the meeting shall prevail.

Article 5

The venue for a shareholders' meeting shall be the premises of the Company, or a place easily accessible to shareholders and suitable for a shareholders' meeting. The meeting may begin no earlier than 9 a.m. and no later than 3 p.m. Full consideration shall be given to independent directors' opinions with respect to the place and time of the meeting.

When the Company convenes a shareholders' meeting by video conference, it is not subject to the restriction on the venue of the meeting under the preceding paragraph.

The Company shall state, in the meeting notice, the sign-in time and place for shareholders, solicitors, and proxies (hereinafter referred to as "shareholders"), and other matters that shall be noted.

The time at which shareholders' sign-in begins, as stated in the preceding paragraph, shall be at least 30 minutes prior to the time the meeting commences. The sign-in location place shall be clearly marked and staffed with a sufficient number of suitable personnel. When the shareholders' meeting is convened by video conference, the sign-in process shall begin on the video conference platform 30 minutes before the meeting commences. Shareholders who have completed the sign-in shall be deemed to have attended the shareholders' meeting in person.

Shareholders shall attend the shareholders' meetings with their attendance cards, sign-in cards, or other certificates of attendance. The Company may not arbitrarily add requirements for other documents beyond those showing eligibility to attendance presented by shareholders. Solicitors soliciting proxy forms shall also bring identification documents for verification.

The Company shall furnish the attending shareholders with an attendance book to sign, or attending shareholders may hand in a sign-in card in lieu of signing in.

The Company shall furnish attending shareholders with the meeting agenda handbook, annual report, attendance card, speaker's slips, voting slips, and other meeting materials. Where there is an election of directors or supervisors, ballots shall also be furnished.

When the government or a juridical person is a shareholder, it may be represented by more than one representative at a shareholders meeting. When a juridical person is appointed to attend as a proxy, it may designate only one person to represent it in the meeting.

If the shareholders' meeting is convened by video conference, shareholders who wish to attend by video conference should register with the Company two days prior to the shareholders' meeting.

If the shareholders' meeting is convened by video conference, the Company shall upload the meeting agenda handbook, annual report, and other relevant materials to the video conference platform at least 30 minutes prior to the start of the meeting and continue to disclose them till the end of the meeting.

Article 6-1

When the Company convenes the shareholders' meeting by video conference, the information below shall be stated in the meeting notice:

- I. Shareholders' methods of participating in the video conference and exercising their rights.
- II. The response to the obstacles to the video conference platform or to the participation in the video conference due to natural disasters, incidents, or other force majeure events shall include at least the following:
 - (I) The time and the date of the next meeting when the meeting needs to be postponed or resumed as such obstacles cannot be resolved.
 - (II) Shareholders who did not register to participate in the original shareholders' meeting by video conference shall not participate in the meeting to be postponed or resumed.
 - (III) When a physical shareholders' meeting is convened, supplemented by a video conference, if the video conference cannot continue, after the number of shares in attendance through the video conference is deducted, the total number of shares in attendance at the physical shareholders' meeting reaches the number as required by law, the shareholders' meeting shall continue. For shareholders participating by video conference, the number of their shares shall be included in the total number of shares in attendance, and they shall be deemed to abstain for all motions resolved at the shareholders' meeting.
 - (IV) The handling method in the event that the resolution results of all motions have been announced, while extempore motions have not been resolved.
- III. When a shareholders' meeting is to be convened by video conference, appropriate alternatives to shareholders who have difficulty participating in the meeting by video means shall be specified.

Article 7

If a shareholders' meeting is convened by the Board of Directors, the meeting shall be chaired by the Chairman. When the Chairman is on leave or unable to exercise the powers as the chair for any reason, the Vice Chairman shall chair the meeting on his behalf. Where there is no such a position as Vice Chairman or the Vice Chairman is on leave or unable to exercise the powers as the chair for any reason, the Chairman shall appoint one of the managing directors to act as the chair. Where there is no such a position as managing director, the Chairman shall appoint one of the directors to act as the chair. Where the Chairman fails to make such a designation, the managing directors or directors shall select from among themselves one person to serve as the chair.

When a managing director or director serves as the chair, as referred to in the preceding paragraph, the director shall have held that position for six months or more with great understanding of the Company's financial position and business conditions. The same shall apply for a representative of a juridical person director to serve as the chair.

It is advisable that shareholders' meetings convened by the Board of Directors be chaired by the Chairman in person and attended by a majority of the directors, at least one Independent Director in person, and at least one member of each functional committee on behalf of the committee. The attendance shall be recorded in the meeting minutes.

If a shareholders' meeting is convened by a party with power to convene other than the Board of Directors, the convening party shall chair the meeting. When there are two or more such convening parties, they shall mutually select a chair from among themselves.

The Company may appoint its attorneys, CPAs, or relevant persons retained by it to attend a shareholders' meeting in a non-voting capacity.

Article 8

The Company shall make an uninterrupted audio and video recording of the entire process of the shareholders' meeting from shareholders' sign-in, the proceedings of the meeting, and the process of voting and vote counting.

The audio and video recording in the preceding paragraph shall be kept for at least one year. If, however, a shareholder files a lawsuit pursuant to Article 189 of the Company Act, the recording shall be retained until the conclusion of the litigation.

If a shareholders' meeting is convened by video conference, the Company shall keep records of shareholders' registration, sign-in, questions raised, and voting and the Company's vote counting results and retain the records, while making an uninterrupted audio and video recording of the entire video conference.

The above-mentioned materials and audio and video recordings shall be properly kept by the Company during the period of its existence, and the audio and video recordings shall be provided to those who are entrusted to handle the video conference affairs for storage.

If a shareholders' meeting is convened by video conference, the Company is advised to make an audio and video recording of the back-end interface of the video conference platform.

Article 9

Attendance at shareholders' meetings shall be calculated based on numbers of shares. The number of shares in attendance shall be counted according to the shares indicated in the sign-in book or the sign-in cards handed in and the sign-in record on the video conferencing platform plus the number of shares whose voting rights are exercised in writing or by electronic means.

The chair shall call the meeting to order upon the meeting time and disclose information concerning the number of non-voting shares and number of shares represented by shareholders attending the meeting.

However, when the attending shareholders do not represent a majority of the total number of issued shares, the chair may announce a postponement, provided that no more than two such postponements, for a combined total of no more than one hour, may be made. If attending shareholders still represent less than one third of the total number of issued shares after two postponements, the chair shall declare the meeting adjourned.

If a shareholders' meeting is convened by video conference, the Company shall also declare the meeting adjourned on the video conference platform. If there are not enough shareholders representing at least one third of issued shares attending the meeting after two postponements, tentative resolutions may be passed in accordance with Article 175, paragraph 1 of the Company Act. Shareholders shall be notified of the tentative resolutions, and another shareholders' meeting will be convened within one month. If a shareholders' meeting is convened by video conference, shareholders who wish to attend by video conference shall re-register with the Company in accordance with Article 6.

When, prior to conclusion of the meeting, the attending shareholders represent a majority of the total number of outstanding shares, the chair may resubmit the tentative resolution for a vote by the shareholders' meeting pursuant to Article 174 of the Company Act.

Article 10

If a shareholders' meeting is convened by the Board of Directors, the meeting agenda shall be set by the Board of Directors. Votes shall be cast on the proposals on the agenda one by one (including extempore motions and amendments to the original proposals set out in the agenda). The meeting shall proceed in the order set by the agenda, which may not be changed without a resolution by the shareholders' meeting.

The provisions of the preceding paragraph apply mutatis mutandis to a shareholders' meeting convened by a party with the power to convene other than the Board of Directors. The chair may not declare the meeting adjourned prior to completion of deliberation on the meeting agenda of the preceding two paragraphs (including extempore motions), except by a resolution by the shareholders' meeting. If the chair declares the meeting adjourned in violation of the rules of procedure, the other members of the Board of Directors shall promptly assist the attending shareholders in electing a new chair in accordance with statutory procedures, by agreement of a majority of the votes represented by the attending shareholders to continue the meeting.

The chair shall allow ample opportunity during the meeting for explanation and discussion of proposals and of amendments or extempore motions put forward by the shareholders; when the chair is of the opinion that a proposal has been discussed sufficiently to put it to a vote, the chair may announce the discussion closed, call for a vote, and schedule sufficient time for voting.

Article 11

Before speaking, an attending shareholder must specify on a speaker's slip the subject of the speech, their shareholder account number (or attendance card number), and account name. The order in which shareholders speak will be set by the chair.

A shareholder in attendance who has submitted a speaker's slip but does not actually speak shall be deemed to have not spoken. When the content of the speech is not in alignment with the subject on the speaker's slip, the spoken content shall prevail.

Except with the consent of the chair, a shareholder may not speak more than twice on the same proposal, and a single speech may not exceed 5 minutes; however, if the shareholder's speech violates the rules or exceeds the scope of the motion, the chair may have the shareholder stop the speech.

When an attending shareholder is speaking, other shareholders may not speak or interrupt unless they have sought and obtained the consent of the chair and the shareholder that has the floor; the chair shall stop any violation.

When a juridical person shareholder appoints two or more representatives to attend a shareholders meeting, only one of the representatives so appointed may speak on the same proposal.

After an attending shareholder has spoken, the chair may respond in person or direct relevant personnel to respond.

If a shareholders' meeting is convened by video conference, shareholders who participate by video conference may ask questions in text on the video conference platform after the chair calls the meeting to order and before the chair declares the meeting adjourned. The number of questions raised by each shareholder for each motion shall not exceed two, each question shall be limited to 200 words, and the provisions of paragraphs 1 to 5 shall not apply.

If such questions in the preceding paragraph are not in violation of the regulations or not outside the scope of the motions, it is advisable to disclose such questions on the video conference platform.

Article 12

Voting at shareholders' meetings shall be calculated based on numbers of shares.

With respect to resolutions by a shareholders' meeting, the number of shares held by a shareholder without voting rights shall not be calculated as part of the total number of outstanding shares.

When a shareholder is an interested party in relation to an agenda item, and there is the likelihood that such a relationship would prejudice the interests of the Company, that shareholder may not vote on that item and may not exercise voting rights as a proxy for any other shareholder.

The number of shares for which voting rights may not be exercised under the preceding paragraph shall not be calculated as part of the voting rights represented by attending shareholders. With the exception of a trust enterprise or a stock affairs agency approved by the competent securities authority, when one person is concurrently appointed as a proxy by two or more shareholders, the voting rights represented by that proxy may not exceed three percent of the voting rights represented by the total number of outstanding shares. If that percentage is exceeded, the voting rights in excess of that percentage shall not be included in the calculation.

Article 13

A shareholder shall be entitled to one vote for each share held, except when the shares are restricted shares or are deemed non-voting shares under Article 179, paragraph 2 of the Company Act.

When the Company holds a shareholders' meeting, it shall adopt the exercise of voting rights by electronic means and may adopt the exercise of voting rights by correspondence. When voting rights are exercised by correspondence or electronic means, the method of exercise shall be specified in the shareholders' meeting notice. A shareholder's exercise of voting rights by correspondence or electronic means will be deemed to have attended the meeting in person, but to have waived their rights with respect to the extempore motions and amendments to original proposals of that meeting; it is therefore advisable that the Company avoid the submission of extempore motions and amendments to original proposals.

A shareholder intending to exercise voting rights by correspondence or electronic means under the preceding paragraph shall deliver a written declaration of intent to the Company at least two days before the date of the shareholders' meeting. When duplicate declarations of intent are delivered, the one received earliest shall prevail, except when a declaration is made to cancel the earlier declaration of intent.

After shareholders exercise their voting rights in writing or by electronic means, if they wish to attend the shareholders' meeting in person or by video conference, they shall serve a declaration of intent to retract the voting rights already exercised under the preceding paragraph two days before the shareholders' meeting in the same manner in which the voting rights were exercised; otherwise the voting rights exercised in writing or by electronic means shall prevail. If the shareholder exercises the voting right in writing or by electronic means and appoints a proxy with a proxy form to attend the shareholders' meeting, the voting right exercised by the attending proxy at the meeting shall prevail.

Except as otherwise provided in the Company Act and in the Company's Articles of Incorporation, the passage of a proposal shall require an affirmative vote of a majority of the voting rights represented by the attending shareholders. At the time of a vote, for each proposal, the chair or a person designated by the chair shall first announce the total number of voting rights represented by the attending shareholders, followed by a vote by the shareholders. After the conclusion of the meeting, on the same day it is held, the results for each proposal, based on the numbers of votes for and against and the number of abstentions, shall be entered on the MOPS.

When there is an amendment or an alternative to a proposal, the chair shall present the amended or alternative proposal together with the original proposal and decide the order in which they will be put to a vote. When any one among them is passed, the other proposals will then be deemed rejected, and no further voting shall be required.

Scrutineers and vote counting personnel for the voting on proposals shall be appointed by the chair, provided that all scrutineers be shareholders of the Company.

Vote counting for proposals or elections at a shareholders' meeting shall be conducted in public at the place of the shareholders' meeting. Immediately after vote counting has been completed, the results of the voting, including the statistical tallies of the numbers of votes, shall be announced on-site at the meeting, and recorded.

When a shareholders' meeting is convened by video conference, shareholders participating by video conference shall vote on various motions and election(s) on the video conference platform after the chair calls the meeting to order. They shall complete the voting before the chair declares the voting closed, otherwise they shall be deemed to have waived their voting rights.

When a shareholders' meeting is convened by video conference, after the chair declares the voting closed, the votes shall be counted at one go, and the voting and election results shall be announced.

If a shareholders' meeting is convened, along with a video conference held at the same time, shareholders who have registered to attend the shareholders' meeting by video conference in accordance with Article 6, intend to attend the physical shareholders' meeting in person, shall rescind the registration in the same manner as the registration two days before the shareholders' meeting, otherwise they can only attend the shareholders' meeting by video conference.

Those who exercise their voting rights in writing or by electronic means without retracting their declaration of intention and participate in the shareholders' meeting by video conference shall not exercise their voting rights on the same motions, propose amendment to the same motions, or exercise their voting rights for revised motions, except for extempore motions.

Article 14

The election of directors at a shareholders' meeting shall be held in accordance with the applicable election and appointment rules adopted by the Company, and the voting results shall be announced on-site immediately, including the names of those elected as directors and those who lost the election and the numbers of votes each candidate won.

The ballots for the election referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be sealed with the signatures of the scrutineers and kept in proper custody for at least one year. If, however, a shareholder files a lawsuit pursuant to Article 189 of the Company Act, the recording shall be retained until the conclusion of the litigation.

Matters relating to the resolutions by a shareholders' meeting shall be recorded in the meeting minutes. The meeting minutes shall be signed or sealed by the chair of the meeting and a copy distributed to each shareholder within 20 days after the conclusion of the meeting. The meeting minutes may be produced and distributed in electronic form.

Said distribution may be announced through the MOPS. The meeting minutes shall accurately record the year, month, day, and place of the meeting, the chair's full name, the methods by which resolutions were adopted, and a summary of the deliberations and their voting results (including the number of voting rights), and disclose the number of votes won by each candidate in the event of an election of directors. The minutes shall be retained for the duration of the existence of the Company.

When a shareholders' meeting is convened by video conference, the minutes of the shareholders' meeting shall contain the start and end time of the shareholders' meeting, the method of convening the meeting, the names of the chair and the minute taker, as well as the response method and the response situation when any natural disasters, accidents, or other force majeure events have obstructed the video conference platform or the participation in the video conference in addition to the matters that shall be recorded in accordance with the preceding paragraph.

When a shareholders' meeting is convened by video conference, the Company shall proceed as per the preceding paragraph and shall specify the alternative measures provided to shareholders who have difficulty participating in the video conference in the minutes of the shareholders' meeting.

Article 16

The Company shall, on the day of the shareholders' meeting, compile a statistical statement in the prescribed format and disclose the number of shares solicited by the solicitor, the number of shares represented by the proxies, and the number of shares in attendance in writing or by electronic means clearly on site at the shareholders' meeting. When a shareholders' meeting is convened by video conference, the Company shall upload the aforementioned information to the video conference platform at least 30 minutes before the start of the meeting and continue to disclose it till the end of the meeting.

When a shareholders' meeting is convened by video conference, when the chair calls the meeting to order, the total number of shares in attendance shall be disclosed on the video conference platform. The same shall apply if the total number of shares and voting rights in attendance are counted during the meeting.

If any resolutions by the shareholders' meeting are material information as stipulated by laws and regulations or Taiwan Stock Exchange (Taipei Exchange), the Company shall upload the content to the MOPS prior to a deadline.

Article 17

Staff handling administrative affairs of a shareholders' meeting shall wear an identification badge or an armband.

The chair may direct the proctors or security personnel to help maintain order at the meeting place. When proctors or security personnel help maintain order at the meeting place, they shall wear an identification badge or an armband, reading "Proctor."

At the place of a shareholders' meeting, if a shareholder attempts to speak through any device other than the public address equipment set up by the Company, the chair may prevent the shareholder from so doing.

When a shareholder violates the rules of procedure and defies the chair's correction, obstructing the proceedings and refusing to heed calls to stop, the chair may direct the proctors or security personnel to escort the shareholder from the meeting.

Article 18

When a meeting is in progress, the chair may announce a break based on time considerations. If a force majeure event occurs, the chair may rule the meeting temporarily suspended and announce a time when, in view of the circumstances, the meeting will be resumed.

If the meeting venue is no longer available for continued use and not all of the items (including extempore motions) on the meeting agenda have been addressed, the shareholders' meeting may adopt a resolution to resume the meeting at another venue.

A resolution may be adopted at a shareholders' meeting to defer or resume the meeting within five days in accordance with Article 182 of the Company Act.

Article 19

When a shareholders' meeting is convened by video conference, the Company shall immediately disclose the voting results and election results of various motions on the video conference platform in accordance with the regulations, and shall continue to disclose for at least 15 minutes after the chair declares the meeting adjourned.

Article 20

When a shareholders' meeting is convened by video conference, the chair and the minute taker shall be at the same location in Taiwan, and the chair shall disclose the address of the place when calling the meeting to order.

Article 21

When a shareholders' meeting is convened by video conference, the Company may allow shareholders to perform a simple test of the connection before the meeting commences and provide relevant services immediately before and during the meeting to assist with any technical communication problems.

When a shareholders' meeting is convened by video conference the chair shall, when calling the meeting to order, announce that there is no need for postponement or resumption of the meeting as stipulated in Article 44-20, paragraph 4 of the Regulations Governing the Administration of Shareholder Services of Public Companies; and that the requirement on the date of the meeting postponed or resumed within five days due to any natural disasters, accidents, or other force majeure events that have obstructed the video conference platform or the participation in the video conference for more than 30 minutes under Article 182 of the Company Act shall not apply before the chair declares the meeting adjourned.

In the event of any incident in the preceding paragraph that caused the meeting to be postponed or resumed, shareholders who have not registered to participate in the original shareholders' meeting by video conference shall not participate in the meeting postponed or resumed.

For the meeting to be postponed or resumed under paragraph 2, shareholders who have registered to participate in the original shareholders' meeting by video conference and have completed the registration but fail to participate in said meeting, the number of shares in attendance and the voting rights and voting rights for elections exercised at the original shareholders' meeting shall be included in the total number of attending shareholders' shares, voting rights, and voting rights for elections at the meeting postponed or resumed.

When a shareholders meeting is postponed or resumed in accordance with paragraph 2, the motions for which the voting and counting of votes have been completed and the voting results or the list of elected directors or supervisors have been announced, do not need to be discussed or resolved again.

When the Company convenes a shareholder's meeting, supplemented by a video conference, if the video conference cannot continue as under paragraph 2, after the number of shares in attendance through the video conference is deducted, the total number of shares in attendance at the physical shareholders' meeting reaches the number as required by law, the shareholders' meeting shall continue. There is no need to postpone or resume the meeting in accordance with paragraph 2.

When the meeting shall continue as in the preceding paragraph, for shareholders participating by video conference, the number of their shares shall be included in the total number of shares in attendance; however, they shall be deemed to abstain for all motions resolved at the shareholders' meeting.

When the Company postpones or resumes the meeting in accordance with paragraph 2, it shall handle the relevant matters in accordance with the provisions set forth in Article 44-20, paragraph 7 of the Regulations Governing the Administration of Shareholder Services of Public Companies, and relevant preparations shall be made as per the date of the original shareholders' meeting and the provisions of this article.

Based on the period under Article 12, second-half paragraph and Article 13, paragraph 3 of the Regulations Governing the Use of Proxies for Attendance at Shareholder Meetings of Public Companies; Article 44-5, paragraph 2, Article 44-15, and Article 44-17, paragraph 1 of the Regulations Governing the Administration of Shareholder Services of Public Companies, the Company shall postpone or resume the shareholders' meeting at a date as per paragraph 2.

Article 22

When the Company convenes a shareholders' meeting by video conference, it shall provide appropriate alternatives to shareholders who have difficulty attending the shareholders' meeting by video conference.

Article 23

These Rules and all amendments thereto shall be enforced upon approval by a shareholders' meeting.

Article 2-1: The Company may provide endorsements or guarantees for business needs or as per investees' needs as per the Operating Procedures for Endorsements and Guarantees.

Article 3: If the Company is a shareholder with limited liability of another company, its total investment is not subject to the limit of 40% of the paid-in capital as stipulated in Article 13 of the Company Act.

Article 4: The Company is headquartered in Taipei City and may set up subsidiaries or branches at home and abroad with the resolution adopted by the Board of Directors and the approval of competent authorities.

Article 5: (Deleted)

Chapter 2 Shares

Article 6: The Company's total authorized capital is NT$3 billion, which is divided into 300 million shares with a par value of NT$10 per share, which may be issued in tranches by the Board of Directors as delegated. Of the above capital, NT$100 million is reserved for the exercise of stock warrants, preference shares with warrants, or corporate bonds with warrants.

Article 6-1: In accordance with the Company Act, the employees to whom the employee stock warrants are granted may include employees of the controlling company or subsidiaries who meet certain criteria; the Board of Directors are delegated to decide on the terms and methods of the subscription. If the Company intends to issue employee stock warrants at a subscription price lower than the market price, it shall issue the warrants only with the approval by the resolution of the shareholders' meeting in accordance with applicable regulations.

Article 6-2: If the Company intends to transfer its shares repurchased to employees at a price lower than the average repurchase price, the transferees may include employees of the controlling company or subsidiaries who meet certain criteria. The criteria and method of subscription shall be determined by the Board of Directors, and the shares shall only be transferred with the approval by the resolution of the shareholders' meeting in accordance with applicable regulations.

Article 6-3: If the Company intends to issue restricted stock awards and transfer them to employees, the transferees may include employees of the controlling company or subsidiaries who meet certain criteria. The criteria and method of subscription shall be determined by the Board of Directors, and the awards shall only be issued with the approval by the resolution of the shareholders' meeting in accordance with applicable regulations.

Article 7: The Company may be exempted from printing stock certificates and shall register with the centralized securities depository enterprise when issuing shares.

Article 8: The change of name and transfer of shares shall be suspended within 60 days before a general shareholders' meeting, within 30 days before an extraordinary shareholders' meeting, or within 5 days before the record date of payout of dividends, bonuses, or other benefits.

Chapter 3 Shareholders' Meeting

Article 9: There are annual general and extraordinary shareholders' meetings. The Board of Directors shall convene the general meeting once a year within six months after the end of each fiscal year as per law. Extraordinary meetings may be convened at any time as needed as per law.

The Company may convene a shareholders' meeting by video conference or in other methods as announced by the central competent authority. The criteria, operating procedures, and other matters to be complied with for convening a shareholders' meeting by video conference shall be governed by the competent authority's regulations if otherwise provided.

Article 10: Any shareholder who is unable to attend a shareholders' meeting for any reason shall appoint a proxy to attend the meeting by presenting a proxy form (signed or sealed by the shareholder) printed by the Company, indicating the scope of the authorization. With the exception of a trust enterprise or a stock affairs agency approved by the competent securities authority, when one person is concurrently appointed as a proxy by two or more shareholders, the voting rights represented by that proxy may not exceed 3% of the voting rights represented by the total number of outstanding shares. If that percentage is exceeded, the voting rights in excess of that percentage shall not be included in the calculation.

Article 11: Each of the Company's shareholders shall be entitled to one vote for each share held unless otherwise stipulated by the Company Act and other applicable laws and regulations.

Article 12: Unless otherwise provided by the Company Act, resolutions by a shareholders' meeting shall be adopted by more than half of the voting rights represented by shareholders at such a meeting attended by shareholders representing more than half of the total outstanding shares.

Chapter 4 Board of Directors and Audit Committee

- Article 13: The Company shall have 9 directors on the board. The term of office is 3 years. The shareholders' meeting shall elect such directors from candidates with the legal capacity, and they can be re-elected.
- Of said number of the Company's directors, the number of independent directors shall not be fewer than three and shall not be fewer than one-fifth of the total number of directors. Directors shall be elected through a candidate nomination system by the shareholders' meeting from a list of director candidates.
- The professional qualifications, restrictions on shareholdings and positions held concurrently, nomination and appointment methods, and other matters to be complied with for independent directors shall be governed by the applicable regulations of the competent securities authority.
- The total shareholding of all directors shall be governed by the regulations of the competent securities authority.
- Article 13-1: The Company has established an Audit Committee in accordance with Article 14-4 of the Securities and Exchange Act, and the committee is formed by all independent directors.
- The responsibilities assumed by supervisors as stipulated by the Company Act, the Securities and Exchange Act, and other laws shall be shouldered by the Audit Committee.
- The Audit Committee's structure, responsibilities, rules of procedure, and other matters to be complied with shall be handled in accordance with the competent securities authority's applicable regulations.
- Article 14: The resolution by the Board of Directors, unless otherwise provided by the Company Act, shall be adopted by a majority vote at a board meeting attended by more than half of the directors. Directors who are unable to attend a board meeting may issue a proxy form to entrust other directors to attend on their behalf, but each director can be a proxy for only one director.
- Article 15: The Board of Directors is formed by directors and shall elect a Chairman from among the directors by a majority vote at a meeting attended by over two-thirds of the directors; the Vice Chairman may be elected in the same procedure; they shall implement all the Company's affairs in accordance with laws, regulations, as well as the resolutions adopted by the shareholders' meeting and the Board of Directors
- Article 16: When the Chairman is on leave or absent or cannot perform his duties for any cause, the acting Chairman shall be handled in accordance with Article 208 of the Company Act. When a board meeting is to be convened, the reasons shall be stated in a meeting notice, which shall then be sent to all directors at least seven days in advance. However, in the event of an emergency, a board meeting may be convened at any time. The notice referred to in the preceding paragraph may be sent in writing or by fax or email.
- Article 17: The Board of Directors is delegated to determine the remuneration to directors based on their involvement in the Company's operations, the values of their contributions, and the general standard in the industry.
- The Company may purchase liability insurance for directors during their terms of office based on the scope of their duties.

Chapter 5 Managers

- Article 18: The Company may engage managers, whose appointment, dismissal, and remuneration shall be handled in accordance with Article 29 of the Company Act.

Chapter 6 Accounting

- Article 19: The Company's fiscal year starts from January 1 and ends on December 31 each year. The Board of Directors shall prepare (1) a business report, (2) financial statements, and (3) a statement of earning distribution or deficit compensation at the end of each fiscal year and submit them to the general shareholders' meeting for ratification.
- Article 20: If the Company makes a profit in a fiscal year, it shall allocate employee remuneration and directors remuneration as follows. However, when the Company still has a cumulative deficit, it shall reserve an amount to offset it first.
- I. Not higher than 1.5% for directors remuneration;
 - II. Not lower than 8% and not higher than 12% for employee remuneration.
- When the employee remuneration in the preceding paragraph is paid out in cash or stock, the recipients may include employees of the controlling company or subsidiaries who meet certain criteria, in addition to the Company's employees. The applicable rules are formulated by the Board of Directors as delegated.
- Where the Company makes a profit for a fiscal year, the profit shall be first used for paying taxes as required by law, offsetting a cumulative deficit, setting aside 10% of the remaining profit as a legal reserve unless it has reached the total amount of the Company's paid-in capital, setting aside an amount for or reversing a special reserve in accordance with the laws and regulations or the competent authority's regulations, and then any remaining profit, together with any undistributed retained earnings from the prior period, shall be adopted by the Company's Board of Directors as the basis for making a distribution proposal after an appropriate amount is reserved for business needs. The proposal shall then be resolved at the shareholders' meeting for the distribution of shareholder dividends.
- All or part of the dividends and bonuses payable, capital surplus, or legal reserve shall be paid out in cash with majority approval at a board meeting attended by over two-thirds of the directors, which shall be reported to the shareholders' meeting, while the provisions in the preceding paragraph that a resolution by the shareholders meeting shall be required do not apply.
- The Company's dividend policy shall be implemented based on its business plan, future capital expenditure plans, budget, and capital needs, to meet shareholders' needs for cash inflows and ensure market competitiveness, of which cash dividends to be paid out shall not be lower than 10% of the total dividends to be paid out to shareholders.
